Monroe Estate Agents Complaints Policy

At Monroe Estate Agents, we are committed to providing a professional service to all our clients. However, we understand that sometimes things can go wrong. When they do, we want to ensure that your concerns are addressed promptly and fairly.

How to Make a Complaint

Stage 1: Complaint to your Point of Contact

If you have a complaint, the first step is to discuss it with your point of contact that you have been dealing with. They will make every effort to resolve the matter to your satisfaction as quickly as possible.

Stage 2: Formal Complaint

If your complaint has not been satisfactorily resolved by your point of contact, you can escalate the issue by writing to the Branch Manager of the branch you are dealing with. Please include all relevant details, such as dates, names of individuals involved, and any supporting documentation. You can send your written complaint via email or post to the relevant branch.

If after the previous stages we are unable to reach a satisfactory resolution, you can escalate the matter to the Property Redress Scheme (PRS) for an independent review. The PRS is an independent body that regulates and resolves disputes between consumers and property agents.
